Orientation programs are conducted on relevant issues of gender equity and its understanding for the benefit of all students. Equal opportunities are provided to all students irrespective of gender to take part in national and international camps. The college has an efficient and just system that provides students with the space to register gender-based discrimination. In terms of safety and security, the institution has Anti-Sexual Harassment committee, Anti Ragging Committee and Student Grievance Redressal cell in order to ensure parity at governance level. 7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Waste generation and management is an unavoidable part of every organization's day to-day operations. Various college cells, such as NCC, NSS, and the nature club, are also committed to minimizing trash creation and the disposal and recycling of created garbage. The following are the measures addressed by college for waste materials: By prohibiting the use of plastic materials on campus, the college is maintained as a "plastic-free zone." Separate containers for degradable/biodegradable, recyclable, and other solid garbage are placed in prominent locations in the campus. In order to reduce the amount of waste paper and plastic, the institution requires students to carry their food in lunch boxes, lowering trash output. We also employ environmentally friendly materials for decor that are reusable during the college's programmes. Another notion we have institutionalized is the paperless office. Emails are used to send circulars. Plastic and paper waste are also sold to scrap merchants for recycling rather than burned. Collaboration with the municipality for the collection of non-biodegradable garbage aids us in preventing waste accumulation. There are enough washrooms and toilets for students and workers. Drainage pipes transport water to leech pits that are adequately sealed to prevent mosquito breeding.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Waste generation and management is an unavoidable part of every organization's day to-day operations. Various college cells, such as NCC, NSS, and the nature club, are also committed to minimizing trash creation and the disposal and recycling of created garbage. The following are the measures addressed by college for waste materials: By prohibiting the use of plastic materials on campus, the college is maintained as a "plastic-free zone." Separate containers for degradable/biodegradable, recyclable, and other solid garbage are placed in prominent locations in the campus. In order to reduce the amount of waste paper and plastic, the institution requires students to carry their food in lunch boxes, lowering trash output. We also employ environmentally friendly materials for decor that are reusable during the college's programmes. Another notion we have institutionalized is the paperless office. Emails are used to send circulars. Plastic and paper waste are also sold to scrap merchants for recycling rather than burned. Collaboration with the municipality for the collection of non-biodegradable garbage aids us in preventing waste accumulation. There are enough washrooms and toilets for students and workers. Drainage pipes transport water to leech pits that are adequately sealed to prevent mosquito breeding.
